

30 Creativity-Inspiring Family Conversation Starters

If you could create a brand-new animal, what would it be like?

If you could invent something to solve a problem or make life easier, what would it be?

If you wrote a book, what kind of book would it be? What would it be about?

What is one big dream you hope to accomplish one day?

If you could bring any mythical creature to life, which would it be—and why?

Have you ever had a dream that you didn't want to end? What happened in it?

If you could live inside the world of one movie, what movie would you choose?

If you could be any age right now, what age would you be—and why?

If you could design a brand-new toy, what would it be and how would it work?

What would you do if you came home and found a herd of goats in your living room?

What is the most random thing you could say right now?

What animal would you like to have a conversation with? What would you talk about?

Why do you think that some people are seen as “more creative” than others? Do you really think they are?

If you could design your own class at school, what would it be about?

What do you think makes someone creative?

How are you creative in your everyday life?

If colors made sounds, what sound would your favorite color make?

How would you describe yourself in 5 words?

If you could redesign your bedroom to look like anything (a jungle, spaceship, castle, etc...), what would you choose?

Imagine you could shrink to the size of a tiny bug–what adventures would you go on?

You've found a door in your house that you've never seen before—what does it go to?

If emotions had colors, what color would your emotions be today? Why?

If you could plant anything in a garden (other than plants) what would you grow?

If laughter powered the world, instead of electricity, what inventions would people create to keep things running?

If you could design your own summer camp, what would kids do there? What would the activities be?

Find the most boring item in your house (a pencil, rubber band, etc...) and "sell" it to someone in your family. How would you convince them that they need it?

What invention already exists that you think you could improve? How would you make it better?

What is your favorite book or story you have read? What do you like so much about it?

What is your favorite song right now? What do you like about it?

If your day today were a type of weather, what kind of weather would it be? Why?

